

SETTLEMENT PLAYERS THEATRE CLUB
Season 2018/2019

Dear Members,

Here we are in August already and it is time to renew your Theatre Club subscription and, once again, we have not raised our ticket prices and your subscription will remain at £19, a saving of £5 over the year. Just to remind you, your tokens can be used at all three major productions for tickets purchased in person at David's Music or at the door. Please remember that you cannot order tickets over the phone from David's. Any problems, please contact me.

I hope that you all enjoyed the plays we put on last year; I was very pleased to see that most of you came to all of them. We try to vary the plays during the year so that directors, actors and audiences all get a chance to see old favourites as well as newer plays. I am always keen to hear from any of you about the choice of play and what you would like to see at The Little Theatre.

One big change towards the end of our year in June 2019, you will see from the diary list that we are trying out performances on consecutive Friday and Saturday nights. We hope this means that more people will be able to come and see us and the week in between gives a chance for word of mouth to spread.

For your diary

Saturday
1st September

Opening Night, doors open 7.30pm.

Free to Club Members, tickets £5 for guests at door only.

- Collect vouchers and buy tickets for November production
- Three one act plays: an Alan Bennett, a new drama and a comedy.

November
15th-17th

"Sex, Drugs & Rick 'n' Noel" by David Tristram. Directed by Jo Roskilly. A very funny play about middle age angst with no blatant sex or drugs and a singing chorus! A first for the Players and a really good laugh.

2019
March 7th – 9th

"Playhouse Creatures" by April De Angelis. Directed by Stephen Charles. Set in Restoration England this tells some of the stories of the first women to be allowed to perform on stage. A moving and often comic account of a true story. Subject to casting.

June
14th/15th and
21st/22nd.

"A Murder is Announced" by Agatha Christie, directed by Cliff Francis. A Miss Marple mystery, need I say more. Subject to casting.

As usual I will not post out your vouchers before the Opening Night unless a stamped addressed envelope is provided. Vouchers will be available for collection at the Opening Night; friends may collect for each other. If you would like to bring along someone on the evening they would be most welcome.

Best wishes, Pat
